

Dialogue Australasian Network

The Dialogue Australasian Network is an exciting and important initiative arising from the need to take values education more seriously in Australasian schools. There are now over 380 schools who are part of this growing and vibrant network. Our aim is to help young people to become more fully human by nurturing and promoting the development of a broad-based academic approach to values and religious education across both independent and state schools in Australasia. This involves a Five Strand approach which involves five essential areas;

Philosophy of Religion

Silence and Stillness

Theoretical and Applied Ethics

The Biblical and Christian Tradition

World Religions

Membership is open to any individual, school or organisation who would like to be part of this exciting and important initiative. DAN supports its members through the Dialogue Australasia journal, its website, teaching resources, workshops and conferences.

Beyond the Curriculum: Developing the Whole Person

Dialogue Australasia Network invites you to be part of a national conference to examine the ramifications of Values Education in our various centres of teaching and learning. Titled "Beyond the Curriculum: Developing the Whole Person" it will be hosted by King's College in Auckland from 19th - 21st April.

A wide range of keynote speakers, including Prof Grant Gillett (NZ), Mr Paul Sheahan (AUS), Dr Felicity McCutcheon (AUS), Prof Rosalind Hursthouse (NZ) Dr Peter Vardy (UK), Prof Rod Girle (NZ) and Dr David Whitehead (NZ), will provide us with stimulating opportunities to explore the nature and importance of Values Education.

There will be opportunities to engage with these speakers and to further examine the content and significance of their presentations in small groups with other delegates. These 'Applied Sessions' will be divided into three categories: senior school, junior school and a general session.

The Conference dinner is an opportunity for further discussion and relaxation with colleagues and is included in the conference cost. A maximum of 160 delegates will be able to attend this part of the conference.
