

Dialogue Australasia Network

Promoting excellence in Values, Philosophy & Religious Studies

Established in 2002, Dialogue Australasia Network (DAN) is an exciting and important initiative arising from a commitment to teach Values, Philosophy & Religious Studies with intellectual rigour and contemporary relevance in Australasian schools.

DAN has over 400 members from Independent, Catholic and Government Schools and Educational Organisations across Australia and New Zealand.

DAN promotes a 5 Strand approach to form the basis of each school's Religious & Values Curriculum covering five essential areas: Philosophy of Religion, World Religions, Biblical & Christian Tradition, Theoretical & Applied Ethics, Silence & Stillness

Membership of DAN is open to any individual, school or organisation committed to furthering the aims of the network.

DAN supports its members through:

- ★ Dialogue Australasia Journal twice yearly
- ★ Website with online Teaching Resources & Forum
- ★ Professional Development Workshops
- ★ Bi-annual Conference
- ★ Regular e-Newsletters & Updates
- ★ A network of like-minded colleagues throughout Australia and New Zealand
