

Dialogue Australasia Network

Promoting excellence in Values, Philosophy & Religious Studies

Established in 2002, Dialogue Australasia Network (DAN) is committed to fostering and promoting critical and creative approaches to teaching Religion and Philosophy in Australasian schools.

DAN has over 300 members from Independent and Catholic Schools and Educational Organisations across Australia and New Zealand.

DAN promotes a 5 Strand Approach to form the basis of each school's Religion and Philosophy Curriculum covering five essential areas: Textual Strand (Hebrew & Christian Scriptures), Theoretical & Applied Ethics, Philosophy of Religion, World Religions, The Affective Strand (Silence & Stillness).

Membership of DAN is open to any individual, school or organisation committed to furthering the aims of the network.

DAN supports its members through:

- » Dialogue Australasia Journal twice yearly
- » Website with online Teaching Resources
- » e-Newsletters
- » Professional Development Workshops
- » Biennial Conference
- » A network of like-minded colleagues throughout Australia and New Zealand
